Attachment A

The defendant shall continue to live at his current residence in the United States, as approved by the pretrial services office of the Eastern District of New York, and may be supervised by the pretrial services office in the district where he resides.

The defendant shall surrender his passport to the pretrial services office in the district where he resides by June 22, 2017.

The defendant's travel is restricted to the United States and Puerto Rico.

The defendant shall make his best efforts to obtain a form of identification, other than a passport, that will facilitate air travel within the United States and Puerto Rico.

If the defendant is unable to obtain such identification and plans to engage in domestic air travel, he shall make his best efforts to use a letter from pretrial services in place of such identification.

If the defendant is unable to obtain a non-passport form of identification, and he is unable to use a letter from pre-trial services for domestic air travel, without prior court approval the pretrial services office may release the defendant's passport to him for the purpose of domestic air travel, if the defendant provides the pretrial services office with an itinerary in advance.

If the defendant requires his passport in order to engage in a legal or financial transaction, and the defendant provides an explanation of such legal or financial transaction to the pretrial services office in the district where he resides, without prior court approval the pretrial services may release the defendant's passport to him for the purpose of such transaction.
